

Please note - I have listed ISBN numbers by each book for your convenience. Do not go out and buy all new books if you already own a copy of the books listed or your ISBN doesn't match, just use what you have. And if you would rather your student use a Kindle version (which is often free) or listen by Audiobook that is fine as well. You can find these books on Amazon, at Barnes and Noble, or Rainbow Resource, even at used book sales. We also have some copies of the books for lending at Classical Scholars, please ask and I will see if we have it for you to checkout. My only restriction on books is that they are complete and unabridged versions. This is usually listed somewhere on the cover of the book. If you are not sure, just text me a copy of the covers and I will let you know, 828-674-1359.
